- ii. If any workman refuses to accept a charge sheet, it should be served on him / her by adopting any one of the modes of service of notice as provided for in the Standing Orders.
- iii. A workman against whom charges have been framed shall submit within the time indicated, his / her explanation in writing to the charges alleged against him / her. Provided that the Management may extend the time not exceeding 7 days for submission of explanation on reasonable grounds if it is so required.
- iv. In case, the workman fails to submit any explanation in writing, it shall be deemed that he / she has no explanation to offer.
- v. If a workman refuses to accept a charge sheet, the workman shall be asked to accept the charge sheet in the presence of two witnesses. If the workman still refuses to accept the charge sheet, he shall be informed verbally the gist of the charge, the time and place at which the enquiry into the misconduct is to be held. In spite of this, if the workman fails to present himself / herself for the enquiry, the Enquiry Officer will conduct the enquiry ex-parte.
- vi. The charges may be dropped wholly or partly, if the written explanation of the workman is found satisfactory. If the explanation is not found satisfactory and it is considered necessary to proceed further against the charge sheeted workman under the Standing Orders, the management shall order an enquiry into the charges. Domestic enquiry may be conducted by any Officer of the Company or any other person who may be an outsider, duly authorized by the management. At the enquiry, the charge sheeted workman may be permitted to take the assistance of a co-worker of his choice to defend himself / herself. However, it is the responsibility of the charge sheeted workman to bring the co-worker to assist him/her in the enquiry. No outsider will be permitted to assist the charge sheeted workman in the domestic enquiry. Suspension, if any, may be continued or cancelled as the management may consider necessary.

- vii. The workman shall be permitted to produce any witness to defend his case and he shall be given an opportunity to cross-examine any witness on whose statements or evidence the charges were framed provided where the officer holding the enquiry for reasons to be recorded, considers it frivolous or likely to cause undue delay in the conduct of enquiry, he may disallow the request of the workman to examine such witnesses. The enquiry officer shall make a brief and faithful record of the statements made, the evidence of the witnesses and the documents laid before him / her, both in support of and against the charge. After carefully examining all the relevant materials available, the enquiry officer shall submit his findings to the management as early as possible along with the enquiry proceedings.
- viii. The charges framed, the explanation and the enquiry proceedings shall be carefully considered by the management or such person appointed for the purpose and a final decision taken on the charges leveled against the workman. The decision of the management either dropping the charges or awarding punishment shall be communicated to the workman concerned as early as possible.
- ix. The proceedings of the enquiry shall be handed over to the delinquent workman on conclusion of the day's proceedings.
- x. The enquiry proceedings shall be either in Kannada / English as required by the delinquent.
- xi. In awarding punishment under these Standing Orders, the Management may take into account the gravity of the misconduct, previous record, if any, of the workman or other extenuating or aggravating circumstances that may exist and / or brought to the notice of the Management.
- xii. If a workman who is kept under suspension and after enquiry, is dismissed / discharged by the Management, he/she shall be deemed to have been dismissed / discharged with effect on and from the date of suspension unless otherwise indicated in the order of dismissal.
